Ages Served: 4

Cost: Free

Eligibility: Louisiana residents who are eligible for Free-or-Reduced Priced Lunch and will turn 4 years-old on or before September 30, 2016.

The Nonpublic School Early Childhood Development program (NSECD) offers qualifying 4 year-olds free preschool services in participating nonpublic schools and early learning centers. Enrolled students may also receive priority to attend their program's partner school for kindergarten. Families who receive SNAP (food stamps) or qualify for free or reduced-priced lunch are eligible to attend NSECD programs. In order to verify eligibility for NSECD, families must visit a Family Resource Center within 5 days of submitting their application. Centers are listed on the back of this catalog.

Use the icons above to narrow down your school choices according to what is important to your family. For example, if it is very important that your child's program offer transportation, look for the "Transportation Provided" icon on program profiles. Consider ranking highly those programs that are able to meet your child's needs.

SPED Services	Programs with the "SPED Services" icon may offer some, but not all , types of Special Education Services. Please contact your programs of choice to ensure that the services they offer will meet your family's needs.
Meals Offered	Programs with the "Meals Offered" icon offer free or reduced-priced lunch to enrolled students. Programs without this icon may require a fee for student lunches.
Transportation Provided	Some NSECD programs offer free transportation, either in the form of yellow bus or van service. Contact your programs of choice to find out more.
Wheelchair Accessible	Programs with the "Wheelchair Accessible" icon are handicap accessible. Contact your programs of choice if you have questions about how a program will be able to accommodate your child's mobility needs.
Uniforms Required	Many programs require their students to wear uniforms. Look for the "uniforms required" icon to find out more, and contact your programs of choice to inquire about associated fees, requirements, or uniform assistance.
